(XXVIIth YEAR.) THE (No. 1391.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1772.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 24.

THE Grand Signior has not only conſented to open his coffers in order to furniſh the neceſſary Preparations for a fourth Campaign, but has reſolved to convert into Specie all the golden ornaments that are in his Seraglio, and among other Things, the grand golden ciſtern, which was formerly uſed by the Grecian Patriarchs for the adminiſtration of Baptiſm.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 28. The diverſions of the carnival go on here in the ſame Manner as if there had not been any revolution. The king dines commonly at two o'clock with the queen mother Julia Maria, the hereditary prince Frederick, and ſome foreign miniſters with their ladies.

LONDON.

Feb. 12. The Society in the Strand have given Mr. St. Pierre, a French gentleman from South Carolina, their gold medal for producing Wines in that part of the Britiſh dominions.

The ſame gentleman has alſo brought over ſome Silk with him raiſed in Carolina of a very excellent quality.

Feb. 13. Laſt Sunday proceedings at Law were by agreement ſtopped between Lord and Lady G. 1200 l. a year is to be granted as a ſeparate maintenance to her Ladyſhip, together with 1000 l. in hand, to anſwer immediate diſburſements.

Lady G's. alimony during the pendency of the ſuit in Doctors Commons was 2000 l. a year; but as the event of the ſuit was uncertain, and if ended in a divorce would leave her without a ſhilling, her friends judged a permanent 1200 l. a year a very prudent ſound for accommodating matters, and therefore complied with the offer.

Lord and Lady G——ſvenor had each an arbitrator to determinate this remarkable proceſs; Lord Cambden kindly undertook to be the huſband's; Lord Apſley kindly ſcended, at the requeſt of the Lady's family, to be the wife's. Theſe illuſtrious Sages of the Law knew that a retroſpect could never produce any accommodation; they looked therefore entirely forward, and in a little Time agreed upon the conditions which we have already communicated to our readers.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, Feb. 7.

"Laſt Wedneſday the Daniſh Reſident had a conference with the States-General, when he communicated to them the great revolution which had happened at Copenhagen on the 17th of January laſt, with all the circumſtances which gave riſe to it; at which their High Mightineſſes expreſſed the greateſt ſurpriſe and concern.

"The laſt letters from Dantzick of good authority adviſe, that an officer from the Grand Signior is now at Jaſſey, the Capital of Moldavia, the head quarters of the Field Marſhal Count Romanzow, negociating a treaty of Peace, which it is ſuppoſed will be preceded by a ſuſpenſion of Arms, as an inſurrection is apprehended at Conſtantinople, unleſs the populace are appeaſed, on account of the high price of proviſions, which nothing can remedy but the reſtoration of peace.

"They write from Paris, that the Dauphineſs was extremely alarmed at the news of the Empreſs Queen's illneſs, and remained in great grief till the Courier arrived, which brought an account of her being out of danger. The letters from Paris likewiſe give an account that Mr. d'Abonne has failed there for a very large Sum of Money."

Notwithſtanding the Mails from Holland aſſert the contrary, a ſubſequent letter from Paris mentions the death of the Empreſs Queen of Hungary as a fact. The ſilence of the Imperial Miniſter at our Court ſeems to favour the account; ſhould it prove true, the moſt ſubtle politicians ſeem unanimous in their opinion, that the young Emperor will ſpeedily make a declaration of war, as he ſeems poſſeſſed of an enterprizing and martial genius. What effect this would have upon the tranquillity of Europe, may in ſome degree be foreſeen.

Feb. 15. There is certain information received, that the K. of Pruſſia is the main ſpring in a northern revolution. He has ſecured Sweden, he perſuades Ruſſia, he rules the councils of Holland, he commands in Denmark; the whole north is at his devotion.

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, dated Jan. 28.

"Advices from Saxony bring the moſt dreadful accounts of the miſery and want which reign in ſome provinces of that Electorate, particularly in the circle of the mountains named Ertzgebourg, where the inhabitants die of hunger and the want of every neceſſary. The garriſon of the little town of Senftenberg is retired, on account of a contagious diſtemper which has broke out among them. By the ſame advices we learn, that the Elector has made a great reform among his troops; three companies of each Regiment have been diſmiſſed, and he has reduced thoſe that remain to a very ſmall number of Men. The ſame diminution has been made in the cavalry, where there are but 15 men in a company kept up."

Feb. 17. Among a variety of particulars that ought to be remembered to the honour of the late Princeſs Dowager of Wales, was her appointing, without any Solicitation, that real ornament to human nature, Dr. Stephen Hales, to be her clerk of the cloſet, and upon his death erecting, at her own expence, a handſome monument for him in Weſtminſter-Abbey.——She afterwards beſtowed the ſame office on the celebrated Dr. Edward Young, author of Night Thoughts, &c. So ſolicitous was this much injured Lady, upon every occaſion, to diſtinguiſh and reward real merit.

We learn by our letters of the 17th of December, from Conſtantinople, that Signior di Ludolph, Envoy from his Neapolitan Majeſty to the Ottoman Porte as he was going to make a viſit to the Pruſſian Miniſter there, was attacked and robbed in the public ſtreets.—By the ſame channel we are informed, that ſeveral Ruſſian Frigates have been lately ſeen in the Euxine, or Black Sea, which have even fired upon ſome Turkiſh ſhips there, and which latter had, with great difficulty, made their eſcape from the former. This event having been authentically aſcertained, and duly notified to the marine department in Conſtantinople, ſix xebeques and four gallies were immediately ordered out on the cruiſe in the Black Sea, and particularly at the mouth of it, for the ſafety of the caſtles called the CAVAX. And, in a poſtſcript to this letter, we have advice, that Ali Bey had taken by ſtorm the city of Scidia, otherwiſe Sidon, in Syria, on the 29th of October, which he intends to make the Capital ſeat of his government in all Syria, to which he invites all the Jews from every quarter of the globe, to come and ſettle, promiſing them not only to have the free exerciſe of their religion, but alſo full Liberty of trading, and even admiſſion into all the departments of government, as natural members of the ſame. At Gaza, Damaſcus, and Aleppo, Ali Bey has an army of 60,000 men.

Feb. 18. It is ſaid a motion will be made for the accounts and letters from Denmark to be laid before a great Aſſembly; and this, in conſequence of its being apprehended, that throwing out threats, and denouncing the Vengeance of the Britiſh Nation, and the terrors of an Engliſh fleet, againſt the Senate and people of Denmark, may be attended with expenſive conſequences to this kingdom, which may probably follow from harſh meaſures being purſued.

A correſpondent obſerves, that when parliaments were even annual, this kingdom was curſed with popery, ſlavery, (as to the latter, witneſs the feudal tenures) and arbitrary power; whence he infers that ſhort parliaments will not redreſs the grievances of this country.

Feb. 19. Saturday Captain Shuldham kiſſed his Majeſty's hand on being appointed Commodore of the ſquadron to ſail to Newfoundland, and Governor of the ſaid iſland.

Extract of a letter from Liſbon, dated Jan.

"In anſwer to the many falſe and infamous paragraphs, that have lately appeared in the papers, concerning the ſatisfaction demanded and received by the Court of Great Britain from that of Portugal, it may be ſome ſatisfaction to the publick, to know how matters really ſtand in that reſpect this 23d of Jan. 1772.

"In the firſt place, the Captain of the Engliſh veſſel ſeized in the Braſils, is a priſoner in Liſbon; and the eſcape of ſome perſons confined in the ſame place, was lately made a pretext for committing him not only more cloſely, but along with common felons.

"2dly, Mr. Cornell is ſtill a priſoner, without relief, redreſs, or ſatisfaction of any kind. N. B. He was arreſted the 4th of Auguſt, 1770.

"3dly, The brokers continue to hold the ſcourge over the Britiſh merchants in Liſbon, inſomuch, that they cannot now ſue for the payment of their debts, though contracted ten or twelve years ago, without producing a certificate from a broker, of the ſale from which the debt aroſe, which is univerſally impracticable. N. B. All their other grievances in ſtatu quo.

"4thly and laſtly, From May 1770 till this morning about eleven o'clock, we have had no Envoy at the court of Liſbon; From all this it is evident, that if the Britiſh court has received ſatisfaction from that of Portugal, ſatisfaction, in the language of Princes, does not always imply redreſs to their ſubjects."

It is ſaid, that the truth of the following account may be depended on.——The office of Commander in Chief of the forces of Hanover being vacant, the Princeſs of Brunſwick came over on purpoſe to ſolicit the command for the Prince of Brunſwick, and to her great diſappointment ſhe found, that the behaviour of the Prince during the late war, was not a ſufficient recommendation, but that the important command of all the forces of Hanover muſt be conferred on a raw and unexperienced officer, a Prince of the illuſtrious houſe of Mecklenburgh Strelitz. This accounts for the ſudden departure of the Princeſs of Brunſwick.

If Lord North ſhould realize his intended plans for reducing the prices of the neceſſaries of life, he will be as popular a miniſter as this kingdom ever knew.

It is confidently reported, that Lord North has abſolutely refuſed to involve the nation in a war on account of the late revolution in Denmark.

Feb. 24. Our correſpondent at Vienna writes, that they are carrying on all ſorts of preparations for an approaching war, with indefatigable diligence and zeal; and they are daily compleating their regiments and filling their military magazines to the utmoſt perfection.

Had not Count Rantzau interpoſed, it is beyond a doubt, that the Queen of Denmark would have fallen a ſacrifice to an enraged populace.

A ſecond revolution is every day expected to take place in Denmark.

The Princeſs Dowager, it is ſaid, ſent 2000 l. to Colonel Keith, as ſhe expreſſes it, for his ſtanding forth in behalf of the innocent, by a private meſſenger, who came by the way of Gottenburgh and Leith.

Feb. 25. Our old correſpondent at Paris aſſures us, that a remarkable coldneſs appears between the courts of Verſailles and that of Madrid, inſomuch, that his Catholick Majeſty's Ambaſſador had actually requeſted his recall.

Mr. Charles Fox publickly aſſures all his friends, that though he has reſigned his office, he will not go into oppoſition, his quarrel being only with the miniſter and not with the King's meaſures.

Feb. 26. Mr. Smith, a merchant of the firſt rate in the city of London, received advice yeſterday about one o'clock, by a ſpecial meſſenger from Amſterdam, that the preliminary articles of peace, between the Porte and the Empreſs of Ruſſia, had been happily adjuſted; and that the belligerent powers had agreed to open a congreſs immediately, to conclude this weighty negociation.

Feb. 28. They write from Paris, that the French Court are on the point of ſurrendering the iſland of Corſica to the infant Duke of Parma, for 11,000,000 livres.

March 2. Five companies of the royal train of artillery at Woolwich, are now under orders to embark at the ſhorteſt notice for Gibraltar; The tranſports that are to carry them are now actually in the river. The publick muſt be very blind indeed, not to ſee, from this intended embarkation, that a rupture with Spain is not at ſo great a diſtance as the Miniſtry have all along laboured to make us believe; for it is ſtrongly ſuſpected, that the Spaniards have for ſome Time been employed in carrying on a mine from their lines to Gibraltar, which is about the diſtance of a mile, and it is feared, that they have already penetrated a conſiderable way into the rock. Dreadful will be the havock when this mine comes to be ſprung, which in all probability will happen ſoon, for we have no miners in the garriſon to counteract them. How ſurpriſing it is that the intereſt of this nation ſhould be ſo ſtrangely neglected in every particular. There is an error in the eſtabliſhment of every department. It will hardly be believed, that notwithſtanding we have four battalions of the train, we have not ſo much as one company of miners in the whole corps.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, Feb. 15.

"The examined Papers of the ſtate priſoners turns clearly againſt them, notwithſtanding the court ſhow all the lenity poſſible to them. Yeſterday noon, the Engliſh Miniſter, Col. Keith, had an audience of his Daniſh Majeſty, in the preſence of his Privy Council, on account of diſpatches he received from his Court."

March 4. We are aſſured that the preſent negociation with the French Court, for the final ſettlement and full payment of the Canada debt, has been carried on and will be ſpeedily concluded, much to the honour of Lord Rochford, who has peremptorily inſiſted on the immediate payment of all the intereſt due on that debt.

The bank has refuſed to diſcount the Jew draughts from Holland. The plauſible reaſon given for this very alarming circumſtance is, that too much gold might through this channel be drawn out of the kingdom. The real reaſon is of a quite different nature, but we do not chuſe to make it publick.

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

Die Martis, 21 Januarii, 1772.

Moſt Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our humble Thanks, for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, Sir, to offer to your Majeſty our moſt dutiful congratulations, on the happy event of the increaſe of your Royal Family, by the birth of another Prince; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that every addition to your Majeſty's domeſtic happineſs, muſt always afford the higheſt ſatisfaction to our faithful ſubjects.

We beg leave to expreſs to your Majeſty, our moſt grateful ſenſe of your Majeſty's regard for our private convenience, in not commanding us to an earlier attendance; and to declare to your Majeſty our determination, to give our moſt diligent attention to the promotion of the domeſtic intereſts of theſe kingdoms, and the extenſion of our moſt commercial advantages, by the eſtabliſhment of uſeful regulations of law.

We return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your goodneſs and condeſcenſion, in acquainting us from the Throne with the reſtitution of Port Egmont and Falkland's iſland, on the part of the King of Spain; and with the aſſurances your Majeſty has received of the pacific diſpoſition of foreign powers. We are made happy by learning, that your Majeſty had no reaſon to apprehend that the peace, which we at preſent enjoy, will be diſturbed by our being any wiſe involved in the calamities of war, which ſtill unhappily prevail in one part of Europe.

Your Majeſty's paternal care in recommending to us a due vigilance in the uſe of every precaution to preſerve this country from that moſt dreadful contagion, from which, under the Divine Providence, it has been hitherto our happineſs to remain free, calls for our ſincereſt acknowledgments, and commands our utmoſt attention.

We beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our moſt diligent endeavours ſhall be employed to frame ſuch laws, as ſhall, in our judgment, tend to ſupply the defects, and remedy the abuſes, which may appear to have been introduced in any branch of the various and extenſive concerns of this country; and we look upon your Majeſty's gracious aſſurance of your ready concurrence, in whatever may beſt contribute to the attainment of thoſe ſalutary ends, as a freſh proof of the deſire, which has conſtantly been ſhewn, by your Majeſty, to promote the welfare of your people.

The humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of COMMONS, to the KING.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN!

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain in Parliament aſſembled, return Your Majeſty our humble Thanks, for Your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne,

It is with unfeigned Joy we beg Leave to offer to Your Majeſty our Congratulations on the Birth of another Prince, and on the happy Recovery of the Queen, who is ſtill more endeared to this Nation, by every new Pledge of Security for the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, as well as by Her Majeſty's amiable Virtues.

We return Your Majeſty our warmeſt Thanks, for Your gracious Communication of the Aſſurances Your Majeſty has received from the King of Spain, as well as from other Powers, of their Diſpoſition to maintain the public Tranquillity; and we cannot but feel the greateſt Satisfaction at the fair Proſpect which thoſe Aſſurances, and the Performance of His Catholick Majeſty's Engagement, by the Reſtitution of Port Egmont and Falkland's Iſland, afford Your Majeſty's Subjects of the Countinuance of Peace: At the ſame Time, we have the greateſt Confidence, that the Reſpect derived to this Nation, from the Moderation and Firmneſs of Your Majeſty's Conduct, will continue to preſerve your Majeſty's Dominions from the Calamities of War, which ſtill unhappily prevail in the diſtant Parts of Europe.

We acknowledge with Gratitude your Majeſty's paternal Care, in the Precautions Your Majeſty has taken to preſerve this Kingdom from the infectious Sickneſs with which we have of late been alarmed; and though we have the Satisfaction to find that, by the Bleſſing of Providence, the Danger of its ſpreading is now diminiſhed, we will not be negligent, on our Part, in taking ſuch Meaſures as may from Time to Time appear beſt calculated to ſecure this Nation from the Viſitation of ſo dreadful an Evil.

Your Majeſty's faithful Commons will cheerfully grant to your Majeſty ſuch Supplies as ſhall be found neceſſary for the ſervice of the current Year, and we will be careful to make ſufficient Proviſion for the Eſtabliſhment of a reſpectable naval Force on which, we are truly ſenſible, the Security, as well as the Importance, of this Nation, muſt ever principally depend.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we will not fail, during this Seaſon of Tranquillity, to employ our Time in making ſuch Proviſions as may be found neceſſary for the Improvement of our Laws, and the extenſion of our Commerce: And your Majeſty may rely on our vigilant and active Attention to thoſe important Concerns recommended to us by Your Majeſty; and wherever it ſhall be found that with Reſpect to any of theſe, either from the Remoteneſs of their Situation from the Seat of Government, or from other Circumſtances, ſuch Abuſes prevail as expoſe them to Danger, we ſhall think it our Duty to endeavour, by every Regulation in our Power, to remedy thoſe Evils, which may in their Conſequences ſo eſſentially affect the Intereſt and Honour of this Country.

ANNAPOLIS, MAY 7.

On Friday the 24th of April, Mrs. MARY COOLIDGE, the amiable Conſort of Captain JUDSON COOLIDGE, departed this Life, after a long and painful Illneſs, which ſhe bore with a true Chriſtian Fortitude: She was a prudent and an affectionate Wife, a kind and indulgent Parent, a ſincere Friend, and an excellent Neighbour; She has left Five ſmall Children to bewail the Loſs of their tender Mother, who was ever ſolicitous for their Welfare. Thro' Life ſhe was a ſincere Chriſtian, but her Behaviour on her death Bed was truly exemplary; conſcious of her approaching End, ſhe performed the Duties of a dying Chriſtian, met the King of Terrors without Diſmay, and readily obeyed his Summons, we hope and believe, to eternal Bliſs.

On Friday laſt his Excellency our Governor, was pleaſed to prorogue the General Aſſembly of this Province, which ſtood prorogued to Tueſday the Twelfth Inſtant, to Monday the Fifth Day of October next.

Arrived ſince our laſt the Peace and Plenty, Smith, and Eden, Nicholſon, from London, but have brought no later Intelligence than what we have had by other Ships,

POETS CORNER.

HORACE, Ode 9, Book IV. imitated.
Ne forte credas interitura, &c.

MY Friend's miſtaken, ſhould he think,
Oblivion, with her gloomy Hand,
Will to the Shades of ſudden Night
The Labours of the Muſe command.

Though Homer's Trumpet loudeſt Sound,
That ſet fierce rival Worlds in Arms;
Alcæus' lofty Strains are read,
And ſtill a tender Sappho warms.

By Love and Wine Anacreon fir'd,
Seems yet to ſmile in eaſy Lays,
Whether he ſing the neat'rous Bowl,
Or in ſoft Lines ſome Beauty praiſe.

Before the gilded Trojan Barge
Had ſtem'd the rolling Græcian Tide,
Many a ſhameleſs Helen ſold
Her Virtue for the Glare of Pride.

Nor Hector firſt, nor Diomed,
In Virtue's Cauſe were ſtain'd with Blood;
But gen'rous Heroes, long before,
Had greatly fall'n for publick Good.

Are they unknown?—No Muſe embalm'd
In deathleſs Verſe their ſhortliv'd Name;
But envious Night their Deeds involves,
And hides the ſplendour of their Fame.

When god-like Virtue yields to Fate,
And lies forgotten in the Grave,
The Diff'rence here is none, between
The Hero, and the bury'd Knave.

But let the Muſe her Odours ſhed;
New Fragrance from the Tomb will riſe,
The Demigod is call'd to Life,
And charms th' admiring Earth and Skies.

Hail worthy Man! PHILANDER hail!—
All Maryland echoes with the Sound;
And ev'ry tuneful Bard would join,
To ſpread thy glorious Praiſes round.

Thou with immortal Virtue ſhin'ſt,
This Country's Patron, kindeſt Friend;—
Methinks I ſee ALL grateful weep,
And at thy Tomb in Sorrow bend.
